Chick Singer Night (CSN) Boston is a non-profit organization with a mission to highlight local female singers/songwriters while raising money to benefit music programs and venues that empower girls/women to "find their voices". This event will feature many Westford singers and raise money to support the Parish Center for the Arts venue. The PCA is also a non-profit organization and relies on revenues from events and rentals to continue offering visual and performing arts to Westford and the Merrimack Valley communities.
